

Rochdale Borough Council
Asylum and Immigration Act – Prevention of Illegal Working Recruitment Panel's Obligation

Before we are able to make a formal offer of appointment, we are required to ask candidates to produce formal documentation to demonstrate that they are legally able to take up employment with the Council. The documents to be produced by candidates are listed below.

We are required to accept ORIGINAL documents only, which will be photocopied and/or scanned and returned to the individual.

Guidance:

List A contains the range of documents you may accept for a person who has a permanent right to work in the UK. If you conduct the right to work checks correctly before employment begins, you will establish a continuous statutory excuse for the duration of that person's employment with you. You do not have to conduct any further checks on this individual.

List B contains a range of documents you may accept for a person who has a temporary right to work in the UK. If you conduct the right to work checks correctly, you will establish a time-limited statutory excuse. You will be required to conduct a follow-up check in order to retain your statutory excuse. This should be undertaken in the same way as the original check.

You should give employees every opportunity to demonstrate their right to work. You should not discriminate on the basis of whether or not an individual is able and/or willing to demonstrate their right to work using the online checking service. To do so may result in you breaching the law. While you may choose to encourage use of the online check and may support individuals in doing so (e.g. by providing access to hardware and the internet), you are not permitted to mandate online checks. If an individual does not wish to demonstrate their right to work using the online service, even if their immigration status or documentation is compatible with the service, you should conduct the manual check.
